

TERMS/CONDITIONS

1. Contact shall be established and maintained between the organiser and the Queensland Police Service liaison officer at all times;
2. Placards and banners may be carried, provided they are made from and supported by cloth, cardboard, or similar type material and do not conflict with State or local laws and regulations related to the safety of participants, members of the public or police and any persons called upon to assist police;
3. Marshals shall be appointed by the organiser and shall be deployed along the entire procession route to assist with the safe and orderly management of the procession and shall be clearly identifiable;
4. The organiser and marshals shall ensure that there is no intimidation or fear caused to any persons;
5. Participants are to obey the current laws in respect to public order (good behaviour) as provided by current legislation in the State of Queensland;
6. Literature may be distributed on condition that it makes no disclosures with respect to business advertising and any cleaning costs for litter caused by the distribution of literature will be at the organiser's expense;
7. Entry onto private property is conditional upon permission being granted by the person in control. A notice of permission does not authorise the trespass onto any property;
8. Entry into a place that is a park, reserve, pedestrian mall, square or other public place is subject to the organiser giving the relevant local authority a notice of intention to hold a public assembly at that location and obtaining from that relevant local authority a notice of permission for the assembly;
9. State and Local Authority terms and conditions regarding the use of open space areas such as parks and malls shall be obeyed;
10. The agreed route shall be followed in a tight continuous formation and no deviations made by participants;
11. All vehicles included in the procession shall obey all laws and regulations for the State of Queensland regarding the requirements for driving a vehicle on a roadway or road related area, this includes but is not limited to any parks, lanes, pathways, tracks or driveways;
12. Participants shall take all necessary precautions to avoid any road incidents and shall immediately obey any lawful direction given by police;
13. No vehicles shall be located within the main body of the procession. Any vehicles incorporated within the procession shall be at the front or the rear;
14. One traffic lane shall be kept open for emergency vehicle access at all times;
15. Queensland Fire and Rescue Authority, Queensland Ambulance Service and relevant local authority(ies) shall be advised of the procession route and the intentions of this procession;
16. All children participating in the procession shall be under the control of a responsible adult at all times;
17. Animals in the procession shall be controlled by an experienced handler at all times;
18. A copy of this notice of permission for a public assembly shall be carried by the organiser or other responsible person during the event and shall be produced to police, if requested.
19. If amplifier devices are to be used as part of the assembly, the event organisers must comply with the provisions of the Environmental Protection Act 1994.
